

Mr. Maulsby, presented a petition of Mrs. Sarah Day, of Harford county, praying for permission to remove one of her slaves from Virginia into Maryland;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Maulsby, Boyd, and Nelson;

Mr. Boyd, presented a petition of Daniel Walters, of Harford county, praying a redress of certain grievances therein mentioned;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Gough, Boyd and Nelson.

Mr. Boyd, presented a petition of George Bowers, of Indiana county, and commonwealth of Pennsylvania, praying for further remuneration for his revolutionary services in the Maryland line;

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Frazier, presented a memorial of numerous citizens of Maryland, praying that an act may pass, so as to allow the practice of the Botanic or Thomsonian system of medicine;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Richardson, presented a petition of Matthew Murray, of the city of Baltimore, praying an act to authorise the Mayor and city council of said city, if they shall deem it necessary, to set aside the assessment of the commissioners heretofore appointed for the opening of Madison street, and to appoint a new board of commissioners for that purpose;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Richardson, McLean and Worthington;—and,

Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of Leonard C. Hurst, late of the city of Baltimore, praying for a special act of insolvency;

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

On motion of Mr. Richardson,

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Lotteries inform this house, as speedily as possible, so far as they can ascertain, the amount of tickets disposed of during the years 1835 and 1836; designating those sold under grants of this State, and those sold under grants from other States, with the amount of revenue derived to the State from said sales, and the expenses of the present lottery system to the State; also the amount of grants now in existence under the authority of this State; how many, and what amount, of pri-